SPANISH DAY

Our Spanish Day was a great success with all the children looking very bright in their yellow and red clothes. All the children took part in Flamenco workshops, hunts, Spanish story telling sessions, food tasting and much more. We also had lots of visitors who entertained the children and shared their expertise.

The winners of the Spanish Quiz were: Yasmin (Year 2), Hope (Year 1), Kartar (Reception) and Zahra (Nursery) - Well done children (and their parents!)

SCHOOL PROFILE - 2008-2009

The School Profile for the last academic year has now been published and can be accessed on <http://schoolsfinder.direct.gov.uk/3173523/school-profile/>. Printed copies of the Report are available from the school office.

UNSUITABLE COMPUTER GAMES

It has been brought to my notice, by concerned members of staff, that some of our children are using computer programs at home (eg Call of Duty and Grand Theft Auto) that have an 18 rating and are totally unsuitable for young children - Parents please be aware!

PARENT SUPPORT ADVISER Appointments can be made through the school office.
